DEMOLITION QUICK UPDATE

This week with Covid-19 spreading in Europe, recycling market face what is widely known as paralysis effect. There is minimal interest for new offers and those already concluded face new risks. India in fear of the virus, refuses to give permission to several vessels leading the local market to deterioration. Pakistan has also sealed its borders, making the situation even worse taking into consideration their position over the last few weeks. Bangladesh is also adopting Pakistan and India's attitude and suspending the shipbreaking.
